C. OFFICER'S COMMENTS

C.1. President Ed Merrin said he had fun, and that conventions run only because of the work of volunteers. President Merrin said that he encourages people to volunteer to keep things going. He also announced that a special card for the wife of recently deceased long time PCR member John Marshall was available for signing and would be delivered to her by Dave Connery.

C.2. Vice President Carol Alexander said that she is no longer moving out of state, and will be able to finish her term as Vice President. Most likely she will be moving to a different division.

C.3. The position of Treasurer was vacated a week prior to the Business Meeting.

C.3. Secretary Tom Swearingen referred the attendees to the Highlights of the last Board of Director's meeting, located on the PCR website, should they be interested in reading them.

D. DIRECTOR'S COMMENTS

E. MEMBER'S COMMENTS

Vice President Carol Alexander said that attendants are not required to be members. Mel Jones thanked Kenneth for taking the time to bring his father to our events.
- E.2. Mike O'Dorney suggested that we consider having more convention clinics and sessions on the weekend so that members who have to work during the week could have more options to participate in the convention. Several members provided opinions and historical perspectives regarding the question. There was agreement that future convention planners may consider the pros and cons of this idea.

F. UNFINISHED BUSINESS

There was no unfinished business.

- G.1. President Ed Merrin recognized the three new Directors who were present.
